To amend the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, with respect to the payment of compensation in cases where third persons are liable.

August 18, 1959
[H. R. 451]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 33 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act is amended to read as follows:

Longshoremen's
and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, amendment.
44 Stat. 1440.
33 USC 933.

"COMPENSATION FOR INJURIES WHERE THIRD PERSONS ARE LIABLE

"SEC. 33. (a) If on account of a disability or death for which compensation is payable under this Act the person entitled to such compensation determines that some person other than the employer or a person or persons in his employ is liable in damages, he need not elect whether to receive such compensation or to recover damages against such third person.

"(b) Acceptance of such compensation under an award in a compensation order filed by the deputy commissioner shall operate as an assignment to the employer of all right of the person entitled to compensation to recover damages against such third person unless such person shall commence an action against such third person within six months after such award.
